

European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights

Personal information

Surname(s)

Surname - McINERNEY-LANKFORD

First name(s)

First names – Siobhán Alice

Current professional position

Head of Unit - Equality, Roma and Social Rights

Starting Date in the position

01/04/2023

Additional Information

Siobhán McInerney-Lankford is a human rights lawyer with expertise in EU human rights law, anti-discrimination, international development, and environmental and social policy. From 2002-2023 she worked for the World Bank's Legal Department, serving as both an operational and advisory lawyer. She was legal advisor to the World Bank's first Human Rights Trust Fund established in the Bank's policy department and represented the Bank in human rights fora at the UN, EU and the OECD. Prior to joining the World Bank she worked in private practice in Washington, D.C..

Siobhán has served as an adjunct professor at American University Washington College of Law, and has lectured at EPLO, EIUC, the Fletcher School, Harvard and the UN Summer Academy. She is the author of over fifty articles and book chapters; she is co-editor of Research Methods in Human Rights (Edward Elgar, 2017) and The Roles of International Law in Sustainable Development (OUP, 2023).

Siobhán holds an LL.B. from Trinity College, Dublin, (First Class Honors), an LL.M. from Harvard Law School, and a B.C.L. and D.Phil. (EU human rights law) both from Oxford. She is admitted to practice law in Rhode Island and the District of Columbia.