Additional Information

Since 2006, I am the head of the litigation department of Zaka & Kosta Attorneys at Law, representing court cases before any court of any instance, as well as Supreme Court, Constitutional Court and European Court of Human Rights. The subject matter of the majority of these relates to the protection of fundamental rights such as the property rights, right to freedom, right to compensation for wrongful imprisonment, right to a fair trial as well as other individual fundamental rights. Since 2015, I have been actively involved in implementing laws and policies in child protection and promotion of children rights, due to the legal assistance provided to NGO-s in Albania, in their projects for child protection and development, help to families in need ect. Since 2019, along with a number of academics and legal professionals, I am part of a group of experts who offer pro bono expertise in the legislative activity undertaken by the Ministry of Justice of Albania.
