

CURRICULUM VITAE

European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights

Personal information

Surname(s)

Gerards

First name(s)

Janneke

Country

The Netherlands

Current professional position

Professor of fundamental rights law, Utrecht University, the Netherlands

Term of office on SC

June 2023-

Additional Information

Janneke Gerards' academic work focuses on fundamental rights law, equal treatment law, judicial review, judicial argumentation and constitutional law. The interrelation of the European Convention on Human Rights, EU law and national law plays a central role in her research. She has also published extensively on topics such as the argumentative strategies of supranational courts, the future effectiveness of the European Court of Human Rights, the development of fundamental rights by the Court of Justice of the European Union, and general notions and principles of fundamental rights law. For a recent list of publications, please see www.uu.nl/staff/jhgerards.

Janneke Gerards has worked previously at the Dutch universities of Maastricht, Leiden and Nijmegen. Since 2015 she is a member of the Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts and Sciences. Her activities outside the university include being a deputy Judge in the Appeals Court of The Hague, being the chair of the Advisory Board of the Netherlands Institute of Human Rights and being a member of the Netherlands State Committee against Discrimination And Racism. Gerards serves on many editorial and advisory boards for law journals, such as the European Convention on Human Rights Law Review and the Netherlands Quarterly of Human Rights.

CURRICULUM VITAE